Academy Meeting at The Alyeska Resort in Girdwood, Alaska

General Meeting Speaker, Friday, June 12, 2025

The Abundant Future of Electrical Construction

Josh Bone

Josh Bone serves as Executive Director of ELECTRI International, the research and education foundation of the National Electrical Contractors Association (NECA). With deep expertise in the forces reshaping electrical construction and a commitment to equipping contractors with the intelligence they need to lead, Josh brings a uniquely informed, practitioner-focused perspective to the critical strategic challenges facing electrical contracting executives today.

Martin Buser

Born in Switzerland, Martin Buser discovered sled dog racing as a teenager and went on to become one of the most accomplished mushers in Iditarod history. A four-time champion, he is known for record-setting performances, unmatched consistency, and extraordinary care for his dogs. Martin and his wife own and operate Happy Trails Kennel in Big Lake, Alaska, where they train elite canine athletes based on trust, partnership, and respect. He is the only musher to receive the Leonhard Seppala Award five times for humanitarian dog care and holds the record for the most consecutive Iditarod finishes. Martin has been inducted into the Alaska Sports Hall of Fame and was recently selected for the inaugural Iditarod Hall of Fame. At the heart of his legacy is his profound bond with his dogs—an inspiring model of leadership, resilience, and teamwork.

Following Martin's presentation, Fellows and guests will be invited outside for a meet and greet with the Iditarod dogs.

We look forward to seeing you in Las Vegas October 4 to 7, 2026 at the Mandalay Bay Convention Center for NECA's 125th annual convention. The Academy reception will be held at the Fountain Terrace at The Four Seasons on Monday, October 5th.

The 2027 Academy annual meeting will be held in Kohler, WI from June 6 to 8, 2027 (Normal arrival is Sunday with departure on Tuesday).

More information on both meetings to follow.
