

James Farrell
Manger, Government Affairs

James Farrell is the Manager of Government Affairs, National Electrical Contractors Association. At NECA he works on a wide array of issues including infrastructure, tax, energy, and government appropriations.

Prior to joining NECA, James served as a Congressional aide to Energy and Commerce, Subcommittee Chairman Rep. Tim Murphy (R-PA), as well as a consultant and PAC fundraiser for several senior members of Congress including Rep. Cathy McMorris Rodgers (R-WA) Chair of the House Republican Conference.

A native of Pennsylvania, James earned his bachelor's degree in Politics from the Catholic University of America in Washington, D.C.